Dear Colleague,

The Endocrine Nurses Society (ENS), extend to you the opportunity to sponsor the Endocrine Nurses Society 30th Annual Symposium on Saturday March 28, 2020 at the Moscone Convention Center, San Francisco, California, supported by the Endocrine Society in conjunction with ENDO 2020.

We are anticipating 100 registered clinician attendees. In addition, any of the expected 8,000 ENDO 2020 registrants, also attend any or all of the ENS scientific sessions and exhibit reception, at their desire.

Platinum Level - $10,000 USD

- Post- Symposium Reception Sponsor recognition
- Corporate logo recognition as a sponsor on ENS symposium presentation slide, symposium program, ENS website before and for 1 year after symposium, and in ENS newsletters for 1 year
- ENS email blasts (3)
- Recognized sponsor Nursing Clinical Research Award, Poster Award, Travel Grant
- Exhibit table at symposium reception

Gold Level – $6,000 USD

- Corporate logo recognition as a sponsor on ENS symposium presentation slide, symposium program and ENS website before and for 1 year after the symposium
- ENS email blast (1)
- Recognized sponsor Poster Award, Travel Grant
- Exhibit table at symposium reception

Silver Level – $3,000 USD

- Corporate logo recognition as a sponsor on ENS symposium presentation slide, symposium program and ENS website before and during on-site meeting
- Recognized sponsor Travel Grant
- Exhibit table at symposium reception

Bronze Level – $1,500 USD

- Corporate logo recognition as a sponsor on ENS symposium program
- Exhibit table at symposium reception

Nursing Research awards, Poster awards and Travel grants to attend the annual symposium, submitted by ENS members, are peer-reviewed and competitively awarded, which your tax-deductible donation may help support.

A reception with poster presentations, awards, and exhibits at the Marriott San Francisco Marquis, will immediately follow the scientific sessions. The symposium program and Sponsorship Agreement are attached, for your reference.

We appreciate your continued support and commitment to improving patient care through professional education by supporting the Endocrine Nurses Society.

Sincerely,

Daphne Adelman, BSN, MBA, Development Chair, Cell: 312-802-2281
